19 Civ. 3876 (PAE) (KHP)

ORDER

PAUL A. ENGELMAYER, District Judge:

The Court has received a call from plaintiff's counsel regarding the method by which the parties can correct the deficiencies identified in the Court's order declining to approve the proposed settlement agreement. Dkt. 95. Specifically, plaintiff's counsel inquires whether a consent letter from counsel modifying the language in the agreement will suffice. It will not. The parties bound by the agreement will need to sign off on any language modifying the contract for such language to bind them. Counsel has the discretion to decide whether the form of such modification be an entirely new amended settlement agreement or a rider to the existing one.

SO ORDERED.
